DIRECTOR, Hope Martinez

Hope Martinez is the Writer/Director of ADAM. This is her first film she has written. Hope received her Bachelor's of Theater Arts degree from the University of Illinois at Chicago. She has performed in both stage and film productions as an actress in both Los Angeles and Texas.

Currently Ms. Martinez works as a Middle School Theater Arts Teacher in her hometown of El Paso, Texas. She writes some of the stage plays in which the students perform as well. The most popular is a staged comedy about dogs in a court room. Hope has always been a huge animal lover from a very young age, and has 4 dogs where she lives at home with her boyfriend.
